

ZOO ATLANTA

2013

ANNUAL REPORT

ANIMAL BIRTHS

We experienced the elation of the birth of Jabari, the first rhino calf ever born at Zoo Atlanta in our 125-year history.

Zoo Atlanta holds the world's only legally-owned zoological collection of Guatemalan beaded lizards and is rapidly becoming a leader in the successful reproduction of this species, which is found only in Guatemala's Motagua Valley.

Making a splash in the morning

The twin giant panda cubs were named Mei Lun (may loon) and Mei Huan (may hwaan). The names, which originate from a Chinese idiom meaning “something indescribably beautiful and magnificent,” were announced via live broadcast on Good Morning America on October 23, 2013.

Animal Planet LIVE's Sloth Cam, featuring Zoo Atlanta's own Cocoa, Bonnie and Okra, debuted in October and is incredibly popular with web viewers. Biweekly Sloth Cam Chats followed in 2014.
