

SEED SPREADERS OF ZOO ATLANTA

1. Elephants eat several hundred pounds of food a day, and poop several _____ pounds.
A. frugivore
2. Rhinos are essential to the health of their _____ ecosystems.
B. hundred
3. Zebras are _____ grazers, cutting through old plant growth with sharp teeth.
C. packets
4. Pancake tortoises wedge between rocks to _____ predators.
D. grassland
5. Find Exhibit 35, and the name of the iguana will get you closer to solving this mystery. _____
E. bill
6. A special name for animals like lemurs that only eat fruit. _____
F. pioneer
7. Gorillas give back to the forest by providing fertilized seed _____ to the forest floor.
G. Jamaican
8. The blue-throated macaw, once thought to be _____ was rediscovered in 1992.
H. escape
9. The white stork uses its long, sharp _____ to forage for fish and insects.
I. extinct
10. White storks are found in grassland and _____ habitats.
J. wetland

